STEEPED IN History

*T*ucked away on a quiet side street close to London Bridge and the South Bank, The Boot & Flogger is one of London's oldest wine bars and the perfect setting for an intimate wedding reception, brimming with character and charm.

With two floors and an outdoor courtyard, we have various private rooms and spaces which are suitable for your drinks reception, the wedding meal and accompanying celebrations.

We believe that the key to the perfect wedding celebration is careful planning, attention to detail and impeccable service and have been hosting all manner of events and celebrations for over 50 years. From your initial enquiry, through to the big day itself, your dedicated wedding planner will work with you to create memories of your special day that will last a lifetime.

THE Venue

*J*ohn Davy (4th generation) introduced wine bars to London with the opening of The Boot & Flogger in 1965.

Using the Vintners' Company privilege, an historical charter which dated back to Queen Elizabeth I in 1567, he was allowed to trade as a "free vintner" (without a magistrate's licence) to sell wine, Sherry, Port Madeira and Champagne.

Today, The Boot & Flogger retains its historic charm with many antique curiosities and wine artefacts on display, collected by five generations of the Davy family.

Set over two floors, The Boot & Flogger can accommodate a wedding reception for up to 44 people and standing celebrations for up to 150 guests.

We are able to re-set specific areas for your evening reception and your wedding planner will listen to your own particular needs and help you bring your vision to life.

150 years OF HERITAGE IN WINE

*W*ine has been at the heart of Davy's since 1870.

Our unique relationship with the world's finest winemakers and châteaux now go back five generations and we still select and ship our own wines. Many are exclusive to us, sourced from critically acclaimed, boutique producers around the world.

Our expert team will create the perfect selection to suit your palate and your budget, from welcome drinks, to wines matched with your menu, including our impressive selection of vintage wines, large formats and after dinner Sherry, Port and Madeira.

For non-wine drinkers, we have a large selection of craft beers and classic cocktails to choose from.

THE Food

Great wine deserves great food to accompany it.

We offer a modern take on classic British cooking, using carefully chosen ingredients to create quality dishes for each of our wedding menus.

Seasonality is very important to us. So, each of our menu packages feature imaginative dishes made with the freshest produce of the season, from our favourite suppliers.

Our menus can be flexible to cater to your particular tastes, such as sharing roasts with a joint of your choice for those who are looking for a more communal occasion. Delicious light, vegetarian and vegan options are also all available.

EVENTS AROUND YOUR Wedding

*W*eddings are not just about the day itself – the build-up is part of the whole experience too.

We are experts in hosting all manner of celebrations associated with nuptials, from engagement parties, family suppers and get-togethers, to hen and stag parties and rehearsal dinners.

When it comes to introducing your families to each other, one of our exclusive tutored wine and food tasting sessions is a great conversation starter. We can also arrange bespoke activities for large groups, so why not kick off your hen or stag do with a creative cocktail masterclass or a cheese and wine pairing?
